

Drivers of unequal harms in Swindon's night-time economy

Sources of power being used to influence the night-time economy:

- Cultural resources (organised religion, cultural norms)
- Economic resources (markets, business)
- Knowledge resources (lobbying, social media, advertising)
- Organisational resources (political parties, trade groups, charities)
- State resources (public services, legislation)

